About the Initiative

The Creative Governance Act invites young adults to reimagine Harrisburg City Council meetings as if we were all superheroes. Participants will watch public meetings (available on YouTube) from September 2025 onward, and create a comic book titled: “Semester 1 – Harrisburg City Council 2025”

This initiative blends civic education, creative expression, and youth empowerment—turning observation into transformation.

Goals & Impact

- Promote civic literacy and political awareness
- Encourage creative storytelling and media interpretation
- Engage youth in local governance through art
- Foster ethical leadership and community pride

Prize & Recognition

- $500 Grand Prize sponsored by Profitt from the Experience Inc.
- The winning comic will be featured on our website and shared with the Harrisburg City Council and School Board
- Participants may submit via email, website, or in person during council meetings
